

Stories Eminently Worth Telling of Experiences and Adventures in the Great National Struggle.

AT WINCHESTER UNDER MILROY, THE 8TH OHIO AT GETTYSBURG Eighth Corps' Experience in the Brigade Presented Arms to Then Battle.

Battle.

Editor National Tribune: Some time

By Comrade D. Bongye, of the 87th

Pa., expressed the wish that some one of the Second Division, Eighth Corps, would write up a history of the engagement at Winchester, June 11, 12 loss of any company during the war.

After Their Great Achievement.

D. S. Koons, Captain of Co. C, 8th Ohio, Leipsic, O., writes that his company what a few weeks' wearing of this new appliance will do. No obnoxious springs or pads, and draws the broken early to burden the broken early to burden the prove it.

Brooks' Appliance. The wonderful new discovery. The above illustration plainly shows what a few weeks' wearing of this new appliance will do. No obnoxious springs or pads, and draws the broken early to burden the broken early to burden the provent of the second Division, Eighth Corps, in his regiment at Gettysburg, and feels to claim for it the greatest part of the second Division, Eighth Corps, in his regiment at Gettysburg, and feels to claim for it the greatest part of the second Division. Some time of the second Division, Eighth Corps, in his regiment at Gettysburg, and feels to claim for it the greatest part of the second Division. Some time of the second Division, Eighth Corps, in his regiment at Gettysburg, and feels to claim for it the greatest part of the second Division. The above illustration plainly shows what a few weeks' wearing of this new appliance will do. No obnoxious springs or pads. Has Automatic Air Cushions. Bluds and draws the broken early to be proved the province of the second Division. The above illustration plainly shows what a few weeks' wearing of this new appliance of the second Division, and the province of the second Division of the se gagement at Winchester, June 11, 12 loss of any company during the war. and 13, 1863, and I will now endeavor It lost 10 out of 15, three of whom were to give my version of it as well as I killed outright and seven wounded. can from memory. On Friday, June 11, the engagement opened near Midfletown, on the Strasburg pike. We surprised the rebels at first, but they got a little the better of us while Milfor was ordered to hold Winchester a telegram was received from Gen. Halleck at Washington to fall back, but the wires ware out and the wassage leck at Washington to fall back, but the wires were cut and the message or more of officers, jumped off his horse and, taking Col. Sawyer by the hand, port at Berryville and Harper's Ferry exclaimed, "Take your regiment to the was withdrawn to protect Washinston, so Milroy was left to take care of himself, with 6,066 available men under his command, against Ewell's Division, compliment could be bestowed upon tharge, took the fort, and found nothing but spiked guns.

On Monday morning, about 1 o'clock, we were ordered to fall back, and when about four miles from Winchester we were surrounded. The 87th Pa. was ordered to charge the woods, and when they advanced found the telegraph wires stretched from tree to tree, and if the Confederates had not fired too high the regiment would have suffered a very heavy loss. Milroy gave orders a very heavy loss. Milroy gave orders to the commanders of the regiments to the commanders of the regiment to close the right, but fortunately left about 100 feet space between them and the sth Ohio. At this short space between them and the 8th Ohio. At this short space the world the participation of the Fifth Corps in the same field.—

E. L. Whittelsey, Captain, 83d Pa., Erie, Pa.

"Camp of 83d P. V., Dec. 13, 1864.

"Dear Father: Yours of the 4th inst. was received last evening. We were obliged to leave our nice quarters at the commanders of the regiments to the commanders of the regiments to the commanders of the regiment to command the strongent to the commanders of the strongent to the command the strongent to the commanders of the strongent to the command the strongent to the commanders of the c different places. One lot got out on the road leading to Bath, Va., and crossed the Potomac at Hancock, Md.; nother crossed the Potomac at Dam No. 4: one at Harper's Ferry. Milroy went out by Harper's Ferry. He was dishonorably discharged from the ser-vice, which I think was very unjust. Our loss was between 3,000 and 4,000 killed, wounded and missing, 300 wagons and about 25 pieces of artillery. If Milroy had fallen back when first attacked I do not believe the battle would have been fought at Gettysburg. but near Washington or Baltimore. was informed that the combined force on the home stretch was about 30,000. The different regiments engaged in this battle, as near as I can remember, were the 123d and 124th Ohio, 6th Md., 80th Pa., 1st N. Y. Cav., 13th Pa. Cav. and 12th Pa. Cav. These are all I recollect Second Division, Eighth Corps Will say in conclusion that I wish any comrade reading this would take it up, and correct me where my statements are wrong. But do not knock me too hard, boys, as it is too long since the conflict to give an absolutely correct story from memory alone.-G. W. War-1el. 424 Franklin St., Wilkinsburg, Pa.

A Remarkable Comrade.

Editor National Tribune: There were best-known citizens of Washing-many comrades of the war of the rebellion who served with distinction and ton City. Mustered into Co. K, 19th

Iowa, in August, 1862, as Corporal, Noble E. Dawson took the oath to do the duties of a soldier, and well did he ardous duty as well as the pleasures.

to the last roll call he will raceive is reward.—J. E. Houghland, Color Guard, 19th Iowa, Eldon, Iowa.

Brothers in the 3d Mo. Cav.

Editor National Tribune; An item in Hooker's Personal Habits.

Editor National Tribune: In your issue of Sept. 10 Majs. Purdy and Kerry take all those, and especially the writer, to task who say that Gen. Hooker's lapse of mental vigor at Chancellorsrapher and being one of his near companions, watching his last moments and are, according to the Najors, "atrocious slanderers." This was officially charged by men possibly as sood as the state of the near companions, watching his last moments and, aiding in his Memoirs, showed what his intentions were when beautiful to the rain was frozen, and the near companions, are stated in the state of as good, as true and as brave as are what a man may do if he tries. Under the Majors, or there would have been adverse circumstances he worked for no investigation by a committe, which, the future, and God gave him the victo save his honor then and for history tory. His other achievements I have found him innecent of even the smell no knowledge of, but from what I on his breath Had the committee learn he has been doing the same duty known he was intoxicated, to have sound so would have done no good. It would not have retrieved the disaster, to learn that it is not money, position, comrades to life. The thing was horrible, and would better be covered by the broad mantle of charity, and now his duty at all times. I could write seems almost cruel, after 45 years, touch the hem of the garment that touch the hem of the garment that des the grewsome spectacle.

A fact that cannot be covered is that God grant that when he shall answer hides the grewsome spactacle.

A fact that cannot be covered is that Gen. Hooker, with 159,000 in an ad-Transaction was defeated and reward. driven back across the river by Lee with 60,000. Was our army at fault its commander?

The Majors ask, "Does Comrade Harman know anything about the facts in the case?" Not personally. My rank your paper prompts me to say that Co. would not make me a companion for a B of the 3d Mo. Cav. had five brothers, Major General. I was not an orderly viz. Garrett, William, Newton, Jasper depot hospital at City Point, Va., but or guard about his quarters; hence I and Marion Vandiver. Marion now cannot hear anything of him. You can have no personal knowledge. Nor have lives at Selden, Kan. Also Co. F of say to Mr. Hood that I shall do all that

Rupture Cure

SENT ON TRIAL TO PROVE IT.

	ree Information Coupon.
Tital	Brooks, 8223 Brooks Bidg., Marshall, Mich. se send me by mall in plain wrapper your Tree of	on Supture, measuring blank and price list charge. It is understood that in case I order ou will send on trial.
Nan	e
Add	ess
City	State

so where they please. "No greater the please "No greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "No greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "No greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "No greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please." No greater they please. "So greater they please." No greater they please. " pected to lose his life, but would take the fort at any cost. The next morning he formed his men, made the charge, took the fort, and found nothing but spiked guns.

On Monday morning, about 1 o'clock, we were ordered to fall back, and when a very heavy loss. Milroy gave orders wounded at Fredericksburg and then obliged to leave our meet wounded at Fredericksburg and then obliged to leave our meet three times at Morton's Ford. He was peeble's Farm the 6th inst. Our corps their men out the best they could, recommended, unsolicited, to the Govard was massed on the Jerusalm plank road during that day. The morning of the ernor of Ohio for anything as high as during that day. The morning of the the rank of Colonel. 7th we marched down the plank road. The weather was very pleasant and the road good, and we made rapid progress. Our cavalry were in the or cavairy were in the advance. The expedition consisted of our corps, one division of the Second Corps, and the cavairy. We reached the Nottoway River about 20 miles made great progress after discharge, but the one I wish to give a little his-tory of is now and has been one of from Petersburg, at 4 o'clock p. m., but did not cross until 2 o'clock a. m. on the 8th. The pontoon train accom-panied us, and a bringe was construct-ed over the river during the afternoon and evening of the 7th. At 2 o'clock a. m. on the 8th our division crossed perform them. Always on duty, al-ways ready and found faithful, being the river and marched to Sussex Court House, and from there to the Weldon known to the regiment as such, he found comfort even when doing haz-Railroad. We struck the railroad at the point where it crosses the Nottoway River, a little below Stony Creek Sta-At Sterling Plantation, Louisiana, in Point Coupee Parish, seven miles out tion, and burned the bridge. During that day and until 12 o'clock that night from the Mississippi River, he was tak-en prisoner with his regiment. Again we were engaged in destroying the railroad from the Nottoway River to Jar-rett's Station, a distance of 10 miles. his sturdy nature took on the hardships of prison life, and carried him thru the 10 months of captivity. It was while a prisoner I was thrown into his company very often and where I saw his fixed determination to make the best of it. Every day when he could get his finger rails clean sufficiently to best of it. Every day when he could get his finger nails clean sufficiently to show pencil marks, he would be found studying short-hand. He wore his nails thin and sore, but nevertheless he persisted, and became an expert in the line. I did not know what he was alming at nor what the outcome would be shown that the outcome would be shown that the could be shown to the shown ask who say that Gen. Hooker's aiming at nor what the outcome would be, but later on his history has become was due to too much or too little was talked and believed ens of thousands of soldiers, who

"We commenced our return the morning of the 10th. It was a cold, rainy day, but we marched to Sussex Court House, a distance of 20 miles, and it rained all day. The 11th we recrossed the Nottoway River, and bivouacked on the plantation of one Maj. Belshes, whose poultry, grain, etc. we appropriated. The 12th we reached our lines near Petersburg, having been away from the main army six days. We destroyed a large amount of grain, etc. I guess the rebels are not starving, for I saw a very large quantity of grain and produce. Our cavalry went to near Hicksford, on the North Carolina line, and destroyed the railroad. The in-fantry went within five miles of that place. I have not seen the box yet, nor have I heard of Rowland Hood. He was last seen by one of our men at the Peebles House, Sept. 30, and was shot thru the neck. Since that time I cannot get any trace of him. I have had the records of our division field hospi-tal examined, also the records of the

The First and Second Divisions were transferred to the Second Agrps, becoming the Third and Fourth Divisions of that Corps. The Third Division was transferred to the Sixth Corps, of which it became the Third Division. After recovering from his wound Grn. Sickles was employed on impartant services, and finally assigned to the command of the Department of the Cardinas. He was commissioned Colchel of the 42d U. S., and in 1869 retired as a Major-W. S., and in 1869 retired as a Major-General. Gen. Hancock was never in the Veteran Reserve Corps, but was put in command of a special veteran corps and assigned to duty justhe Shen-andoah Valley.—Editor, National Trib-Co rac of this Government. He enlisted March 20, 1861, for five years, went out under the three-years act, was dischared March 20, 1864, re-enlisted in the Navy and served till the finish. He is pensioned for gunshot wounds of right hip and arms, and gets $14 a month. He and his comrades received no bounty, and had none of the benefits which have been showered upon the volun-teers. He served his country faithfully. suffered prison life, and was twice wounded, but gets a moderate pension only for his gunshot wounds, without any allowances for the diseases which Poem Wanted.

Regulars Not Fairly Treated.

F. Cogswell, Pomona, Cal., wants a poem about Jacob Shedd as a young nan in 1861 joining the Indiana cav alry, galloping off to the South. By wounds and disease he returns de-mented, and ever since, with stick on his shoulder, has been on post in front

MUSTERED OUT.

FRIEDMAN—At Birmingham, Ala., Ciation of Military Surgeons of the United States, Examining Surgeon for Several life insurance companies, treasurer of the Alumni Association of Saxon Pruesia, Germany; came to the United States in 1856; enlisted April 15, 1851, as private in Co. A. 2d Ohio; Served 49 months; suffered in rebel prison pens, and was successively promoted until he attained rank of Cap.

Military Surgeons of the United States, Examining Surgeon for several life insurance companies, treasurer of the Alumni Association of the University of Maryland, and director of the Maryland Brigade, First Aid Corps of the National Volunteer Emergency Service.

Althorover 60, he continues in active practice with his son, Dr. G. Lane Taneyhill, Jr., who is a graduate of and an assistant on the teaching faculty long in Cineinnati, and later in Chattanooga, Tenn.; Austin, Tex., and Birm-and rose to the rank of Sergeant. He s survived by a widow and a son and SIMMONS.-At Saybrook, Ill., Aug. , D. H. Simmons, aged 71 years, Comrade Simmons served three years in the 11th Ill. Cav., fulfilling his duties faithfully. He was a consistent Christian and greatly beloved by all. He is survived by a widow and one child. SPRAGUE .- At Saybrook, Til., June 19. Benoni Sprague, aged 74. Com-rade Sprague served in Co. F. 116th Ill., from 1862 till the close of the war, being honorably discharged as a Cor-poral. Comrade Sprague received the Medal of Honor for the braye part he played in the "forlorn hope" at Vicksburg, being one of thre out of the 4,000 soldiers from his County who was so rewarded during the war. He is survived by a widow and four sons. KEYSER.-John M. Keyser, aged 65. Comrade Keyser served thru the war in the 126th Ohio, and was a prominent member of the G. A. R. and Union Veteran Legion. He leaves a widow, but

MILLIONS DREAD WASH DAY. But You Can Make It a Day of Rest Rather Than of Labor. A Novel

Proposition. Ten million American families have vashing to do and dread the coming of the day when it must be done.

Usually the task falls upon the shoulders of one poor woman. Those shoulders soon become stooped; her hands red and gnaried. At night she is ready to drop with falls.

is ready to drop with fatigue.

"What is the use," said Mr. Bieber, of the 1990 Washer Company, "of modern labor saving inventions if people fail to take advantage of them?

"Here I've got a washing machine that any woman can operate while sitting dwyn and readings a beat It. ting down and reading a book. It will make a tubfull of clothes spotlessly clean in six or seven minutes and cannot possibly tear or injure the most delicate fabric.

delicate fabric.

"And yet a million women go on rubbing and scrubbing all day long on a washing that could just as well be finished while the breakfast dishes were being done up.

were being done up.

"They don't seem to understand how the 1900 Washer can do more in ten minutes than they can do in ten hours.

"Just the same it can, and to prove it I am going to send to every responsible woman who writes me one of these Gravity Washers absolutely free of charge.

of charge.
"I am going to let het pre it for a month without costing har one cent.
"If at the end of that timershe real-

The First and Second Divisions were G. LANE TANEYHILL, A. M., M. D.

Re-elected Surgeon-General, G. A. R. Altho from Maryland, Surg.-Gen. Taneyhill was for nearly two years be-fore the war an "Ohio boy," teaching school near Bryan, and contemplated enlisting in the 14th Ohio under Col. James B. Steedman, but the company from Bryan was refused because the Toledo boys had more than filled the regiment. He subsequently returned to Maryland, and for a short time was the Assistant Surgeon of the 11th Md., one of the regiments under Gen. Lew Wallace, which at Monocacy, Md., helped to prevent Early from entering Washington. He is the son of the late Washington. He is the son of the late Rev. Thomas Taneyhill, of the old Baltimore Methodist Conference, and a Regulars Not Fairly Treated.

S. W. Hoptonstall, Corporal, Battery
D. 5th U. S. Art., Montesano, Wash., does not think that the Regulars have received proper treatment at the hands

Medical Director of the Department of

G. LANE TANEYHILL, M. D. was elected Surgeon of the 6th Md. National Guard, in the uniform of which rank his likeness appears in this

He is an alumnus of Dickinson College (of which he is now a trustee) and also of the University of Maryland He has held many prominent posi-tions in the medical profession, among which are President of the National Association of U. S. Pension Surgeons, a society having over 1,900 members; trustee of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland; delegate to the ninth International Medical Congress; delegate to the American Medical As-sociation from Maryland, which met last June in Chicago; member of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, Examining Surgeon for several life insurance companies, treasurer of the Alumni Association of anoga, Tenn.; Austin, Rex., and Birmingham, Ala,

WELLS.—At Bethany, Me., Oct. 11.

1908, Richard Wells, aged 72 years. He served in Co. H, 25th Iowa. His widow and seven children survive film.

Bristol.—At Oakland, Cal., Sept.
I inclose herewith a copy of a letter written by me, containing an account of the participation of the First Division of the Fifth Corps in the same field.—
E. L. Whittelsey, Captain, 83d Pa., Erie, Pa.

"Camp of 83d P. V., Dec. 13, 1864.
"Camp of 83d P. V., Dec. 13, 1864.
"Dear Father: Yours of the 4th inst.

"Camp of 83d P. V., Dec. 13, 1864.
"Dear Father: Yours of the 4th inst.
was received last evening. We were obliged to leave our nice quarters at

"SOUTHWICK.—At his home in

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Culver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Culver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Culver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Culver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Calver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

Thomas W. Dawson, Calver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

It homas W. Dawson, Calver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

It homas W. Dawson, Calver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish a short history of the 29th III.

It homas W. Dawson, Calver, Kan.

The 29th III.

Editor National Tribune: Please publish as consolidated with it Nov. 15, 1862, and the organization, composed the served in the war against the sour SOUTHWICK.—At his home in Col. Loren Kent, in command at the Brooklyn, N. Y., at the age of 73. At time of final muster-out. It belonged to Logan's Division, Seventeenth County Court and Col. Loren Kent, in command at the time of final muster-out. It belonged to Logan's Division, Seventeenth Court and Col. Logan's Division, Seventeenth County Court and Col. Logan's Division, Seventeenth Court and Col. Logan's Division and Col. Logan's Div etc.-Editor National Tribune

The 11th Ohio.

Editor National Tribune: Can you give a short sketch of the 11th Ohio?—O. A. Keich, Lebanon, Tenn., R. F. D. Carrier 3. The 11th Ohio was organized at Camp Dennison from June, 1861, to Septen ber, 1862, and upon expiration of its three years' service the veterans and recruits consolidated into a battalion, and finally mustered out June 11, 1865. It was commanded by Col. Chas. A. De Villiers, who was dismissed April 23, 1862, succeeded by Col. Philander P. 1562, succeeded by Col. Philander P. Lane, who resigned Oct. 26, 1863. Lieut. Col. Ogden Street then took command, retaining the same till his time expired, June 21, 1864, and at the time the battalion was mustered out Capt. D. Clin-ton Stubbs was in command. It be-longed to Baird's Division, Fourteenth Corps, and lost 54 killed and 98 from lisease, etc.—Editor National Tribune

The 150th N. Y. Editor National Tribune: Please give short history of the 150th N. Y., the illed, wounded and died of disease tc.-Wm, McDowell, 1262 Liberty St. Weehawken, N. J. The 150th N. Y. was organized at Poughkeepsie in October, 1862, and was mustered out June 8, 1865, the recruits being transferred to the 60th N. Y. It was commanded by Col. John H. Ketcham, brevetted Brigadier-General Dec. 6 1864, who resigned March 2, 1865, succeeded by Col. Alfred B. Smith. It belonged to Williams's Division, Twelfth Corps, and lost 51 killed and 81 from disease, etc.—Editor National Trbiune.

The 18th Mass. Editor National Tribune: If not too much trouble, please give a short history of the 18th Mass.—Thos. M. Reed, East Providence, R. 1.

The 18th Mass. was organized at Readville and Boston from August 1861, to January, 1862. The origina 1861, to January, 1862. The original members were mustered out Sept. 2, 1864, and the remaining men consoli-dated with the 32d Mass. Oct. 21, 1864. It was commanded by Col. Jas. Barnes, a West Point graduate, who was pro-moted Nov. 29, 1862, to Brigadier-Gen-eral, succeeded by Col. Joseph Hayes promoted to the same rank May 12, 1864. Lieut.-Col. William B. White

The 60th N. Y.

Editor National Tribune: Please give short history of the 60th N. Y.-

Major-General. I was not an orderly viz, Garrett, William, Newton, Jasper or gard about his garacters; hence I and Marion vandiver. Marion now cannot hear anything of him. You cannot have no personal knowledge. Nor have anything of hat the end of that there is a syloment cannot hear anything of him. You cannot hear anything of him. You cannot have no personal knowledge. Nor have did not what he same regiment had by the same regiment had the beam of him. You cannot have no personal knowledge. Nor have deed subthing the same regiment had by the same regiment had by it the about it has been the mange, as you hear the was omnomed and register it was not not weather is very cold here, and I can to find out what became of him weather is very cold here, and I can to find out what became of him weather is very cold here, and I can to find out what became of him weather is very cold here, and I was the hear of think, with you, that the 'devil will be pay all the labor it has sub it is knowledge. The mange of it afterward it was the hear of the faller, whose anams it have for the faller, whose anams it have for it and freight; I send it right to her home.
Then if she don't want it—I take it back at my own expense.

The data from which this book was compared to Brigadier-General April 28, back at my own expense.

The data from which this book was compared to Brigadier-General April 28, back at my own expense.

The data from which this book was compared to Brigadier-General April 28, back at my own expense.

FREE Dollar Bottle Vitaline

Dr. Rainer says: "My scientific form-ula of Vitaline is the sure cure for the diseases and symp-toms mentioned below—it's the most certain of all and there is no doubt about this. Vitaline tablets are just the treatment so many are looking for, what they should have and must have to be made strong, vigorous and healthy. It makes no difference how weak you are nor how long you have had your trouble, Vitaline will easily over-come it—it will not fall nor disappoint you." NERVOUS WEAKNESS, DEBILITY_Lost VITALITY.

t Feeling, Weak, Aching Back, Lack, Liberty or Amelien, Fad Dreams, Po-Bashful, Restless at Hight, Despondent. STOMACH TROUBLES. Pain in Stomach, Lors of Appellia, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, flad Tante or Breath, Rose Headache, Blooted, Barthum, Sour Belehieg, Spitting Up, Calarri, Gas. Ganavins. Sour Belehieg, Spitting Up, Calarri, Gas. HEART WEAKHESS Pluttering Skipping, Palpita-Shoulder Blade, Short Bon, Pain In Heart, Side or Dixty Spells, Swelling, Rheumathen, Theach, Cold or Excitement or Parks

CATARRH Hawking, Spitting, Nose Running Watery or Yellowish Matter, or Stopped Up, Sneezing, Duil Headache, Coughing, Deafness; Palus in Kidneys, Bladder, Lungs, Stomach or Dowsis may be Catarrh.

BLOOD TROUBLES. General peblity, Paleness, rous, Hash, Sores, Hieers, Pimpies, Chilty or Feverish, Lors of Flesh and Strength.

Dr. Raincy Medicine Co., Dept. 54, 152 Lake St., Chicago. I enclose four cants postage. Sand at once by mail in plain package $1.00 hottle Vitaline Tabists on Irial, and if it proves satisfactory I will send you $1.00, etherwise I will pay you nothing.

The 24th, 122d and 185th N. Y.

Editor National Tribune: Pease give a short history of the 24th, 122d and 185th N. Y., all of which were from our County of Onondaga.—T. C. Day, Lysander, N. Y.

The 24th N. Y. was organized at Elmira May 17, 1861, for two years, and mustered out May 29, 1862. It was also called 1st Oswego regiment, and was commanded by Col. Timothy Sullivan, who resigned Jan. 14, 1862, succeeded by Col. George H. Cram, in command at the time of muster-out. It belonged to Doubleday's Division, First Corps, and lost 88 killed and 31 from disease, etc. disease, etc.

in August, 1862, and mustered out June 23, 1865. It was commanded by Col. Silas Titus, who was discharged Jan. 23, 1865, succeeded by Lieut.-Col. Au-23, 1355, succeeded by Lieft, Col. Augustus W. Dwight, who was killed in action March 25 of the same year near Petersburg. At the time of muster-out Lieft, Col. Horace H. Walpole was in command. It belonged to Newton's Di-command. It belonged to Newton's Di-vision, Sixth Corps, and lost 91 killed and 88 from disease, etc.

The 185th N. Y. was organized at Syracuse in September, 1864, for one year, and mustered out May 29, 1865. It was commanded by Col. Edwin S. Jenney, who was discharged Feb. 3, 1865, succeeded by Col. Gustavus Sniper, in command at the time of mus-ter-out. It belonged to Griffin's Diviter-out. It belonged to Griffin's Divi-sion, Fifth Corps, and lost 56 killed and 42 from disease, etc.—Editor National

The 107th Ill. Editor National Tribune: I wish you would find space in your paper for a short history of the 197th Ill.—J. P. North, Lane, Ill.

The 107th Ill. was organized at Springfield Sept. 4, 1862, and mustered out June 30, 1865. It was commanded by Col. Thos. Snell, who resigned Dec. 13, 1862 succeeded by Col. Joseph J. Kelly, who resigned Dec. 7, 1863; Lieut. Col. Francis H. Lowry then took com-mand, who died Jan. 1, 1865, of wound received in action at Franklin, succeed ed by Lieut.-Col. Thos. J. Milholland, in command at the time of muster-out It belonged to Ruger's Division, Twen-ty-third Corps, and lost 30 killed and 122 from disease, etc.—Editor National

The 2d Mass. Cav. was organized from December, 1862, to June, 1863, and mustered out July 20, 1865. Cos. A. E. F. L. and M were organized at San Francisco, Co. H at Boston, and Cos. B. C. D and I at Readville, Mass. It was commanded by Col. Chas. R. Lowell, of the Regular Army, who died Oct. 19, 1884, of wayneds received in action. ell, of the Regular Army, who died Oct.

19. 1864. of wounds received in action at Cedar Creek, succeeded by Col. Casper Crowningshield, who was discharged June 16, 1865. It belonged to Merritt's Division, Cavalry Corps, and lost 90 killed and 141 from disease, etc.—Edliked and 141 from disease, etc.—Ed Mich. Sond Topings.

Mich. Sond Topings.

The 9th Ky.

Editor National Tribune: Please give a short sketch of the 9th Ky.-Shelby Bertram, Mansfield, Mo.

want to send every sufferer who reads this paper a pair of Magic Foot Drafts TO TRY EREE.

SEND US YOUR ADDRESS TODAY

Write us. We'll send you a $1.00 Pair of Magic Foot Drafts, the great Michigan external remedy that is cur-ing thousands, To Try FREE.

Frederick Dyer, Cor. Sec'y. No matter where the pain, whether Tribune.

The 2d Mass. Cav.

Editor National Tribune:

Editor National Tribune:

The 2d Mass. Cav.

Joseph Forst. 841 W. Lexington St., Baltimore, Md.

The 2d Mass. Cav. was organized from December, 1862, to June, 1863, and mustered out July 20, 1865. Cos.

Typical Stilled and scute of chronic—muscular, sciatio, lumbago, gout—and however stubbern or severe, you'll get the Drafts by return mail. Then after you get them and try them, if you are fully satisfied with the benefit received, send us One Dollar. If not, keep your money. We take your word.

We make this unequaled offer because we know what remark-

Mich., Send no money. Write today.

Last Chance--Only 100 Copies Left. Alphabetical List of Battles

From the Official Records-From 1754 to 1900, With Dates

The date of any one of the 8,220 battles, skirmishes, and other incidents of the War of the Rebellion, or of any one of the 1,251 engagements of the Spanish-American War and Philippine Insurrection can be referred to as easily as to a word in the dictionary.

All of the battles of the Old Wars are arranged in the same manner, with a brief sketch of each engagement, including the losses.

The Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution will find many things of interest, as the battles of the Revolution are full and complete.

It has been adopted as authority by the United States Pension Bureau, and there are 1,500 copies in use in that office. It gives the number killed and wounded in each engagement during the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, and the Disturbance in China.

succeeded Col. Hayes, and held the command until the muster-out- September. It belonged to Griffins's Divitember. It belonged to Griffins's Divi-sion, Fifth Corps, and lost 123 killed chronologically as they occurred from day to day. This alone is worth and 129 from disease, etc.—Editor Nather of the book.

As a book of reference it has no equal. Teachers, reporters and authors speak in highest terms of the work. It will be found a ready reference to settle disputes as to dates

Reuben B. Cole, 59 Cooper St., Camden, of battles and other incidents; and by marking the various engagements in which comrades took part, they will leave a record that their children and grandchildren will be proud to exhibit. The book will enable comrades to retrace, in memory, the long marches and engagements in which they participated from Fort Sumter to Appomattox, and from Cuba to the Philippines. The data from which this book was complied are principally from

The book is neatly bound in cloth, and contains 252 pages, well

If after examination you are pleased with the book show it to your comrades. If not, return it and get your money. Sent postpaid. Price $1.00 per copy.

Address, THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.

519 Th regenth Street N. W., Washington, D. C.